'Ōlelo No'eau... Hawaiian Proverb #129... MARY KAWENA PUKUI... 'A'ohe 'auwa'a pa'a i ka hālau i ka mālie.
No canoes remain in the sheds in calm weather. Everybody goes fishing in good weather. Also used when people turn out in great numbers to share in work and play.

02.03.2k18...Hale'iwa Festival... The Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā was invited to join this celebration. We took our Kūkaniloko display board to share with the added feature of the "Archaeoastronomy of Kūkaniloko". HCCW's lālā ho'okama Martha Noyes was able to explain the relationship between Kūkaniloko and the heavens to our visitors. It was nice to meet children who have come for a Piko Listening Journey with kia'i Tom and listen to them share with their families all that they remembered from their visit. We also shared our newly printed Kūkaniloko T-shirts. Uncle Pila brought his red hot Hawaiian Chili Peppers to share and Amy Kelly brought her jewelry. Mahalo to all who came out to have fun with us!

02.16.2k17... Dr. VerlieAnn Malina-Wright brought her guest Bob Ranney from Las Vegas, Nevada to visit with us at Kūkaniloko. HCCW Kahu Peter Lonoae'a greeted him with Kūkaniloko protocol as he explained the purpose for this ceremony for visitors to our wahi kapu. Mahalo for taking the time to learn the history of our very special pōhaku 'o Kūkaniloko.

ALOHA is forever ... and FOREVER is the old way of the ancients

'Ōlelo No'eau... Hawaiian Proverb #1821... MARY KAWENA PUKUI... Ko koā uka, ko koā kai. Those of the upland, those of the shore. In the olden days relatives and friends exchange products. The upland dwellers brought poi, taro and other foods to the shore to give to kinsmen there. The shore dwellers gave fish and other sea foods. Visits were never made empty-handed but always with something from one's home to give.

A special mahalo plenty to Noelani whom we met at the Hale'iwa Festival. She caught the bus from the North Shore to work with us for the morning. You are appreciated! Wahiawā Baha'i Faith Hiking Group came to help. It was their first time at Kūkaniloko. Aloha to HCCW lālā ho'okama Julia Estrella who invited them. She says they were deeply enriched by their Kūkaniloko experience...

02.26.2018 ... Master Rulin Xiu visited Kūkaniloko. Dr. Xiu lives in Kona, Moku o Keawe. She travels the world teaching. She is a quantum physicist and string theorist. Dr. Xiu worked on the grand unification theory for more than twenty years. Grand unification theory (GUT) is to use one mathematic formula to explain and understand everyone and everything. To her, this is the pathway to unify science with spirituality. Her journey to Kūkaniloko was both spiritual and scientific. The mana – energies - of this wahi kapu amazed her. She promised to return to further develop her studies...eō

02.27.2018 ... Astrology and Archaeoastronomy are not usually spoken in the same sentence. Today at Kūkaniloko there was a meeting of the minds with these two wahine, each an expert in their own right.
