E ho'omaha 'oe me ke aloha-Rest in Love. Robert "Bob" Albin passed away, May 6, 2014, at the age of 86. His wife, Martha, is lālā ho'okama Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā. Bob was known for his beautiful woodwork. He was a volunteer on the Battleship Missouri for 14 years up until December 2013 when he became ill. His work there included making the wood ladders, frames for the plaques and displays like the finishing touches on the wooden kiosk for the brochures at the entrance of the Battleship. The teak shop has been named "The Bob Albin Teak Shop" in his honor. Bob was active at Kawaihae'o and served as a greeter, member of the Handbell Choir, and on the Board of Trustees. When Bob and Martha married in 1999 and moved to their home in Wahiawā Heights, Bob built his own workshop, added a bathroom and a den to his home. Bob "turned bowls", made picture frames and plaques in his leisure time. Bob is survived by his wife, Martha, three stepchildren, six mo'opuna, a sister, and five nieces and nephews. E ha'o ma'oli no makou ia ia - We will truly miss him Aloha oe...

5.17.14...The Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā was invited to the Private Blessing of The Queen's Medical Center - West O'ahu. Kalimapau and Pakele represented HCCW. A tour of first floor facilities was afforded to guests following a beautiful ceremony...

5.29.14...Maui no ka 'oi...lālā 'ōiwi Keli'i Solomon of Wailuku is 2nd generation HCCW, son of Founding and Charter members, the late David and Edna Solomon of Wahiawā. Keli'i is a practitioner of lomilomi, lua, weapon making and wood carving – photographed here at Pu'ukoholā with his newly crafted pahu drum. He and nālālā ho'okama Laurel Seeti Douglass and Guy Gaumont of Keokea are our HCCW Maui members. Seeti, a seeker of truth, is a researcher. She diligently examines and questions recorded history of our Nation, ko Hawai'i paeaina. Her investigations began with circumstances in the deaths of Royal Secretary Timoteo Ha'alilio-1844 and Prince Moses Kekuaiwa-1848. Guy is a videographer, producer and editor for their company Maui Film Works, Inc. He has created numerous preservation projects in DVD with Maui kupuna and kanaka maui featuring 'ohana, mele, mo'olelo, kalo and much more. He recently produced the audio book "Under Maui Skies" with author Wayne Moniz. Seeti & Guy seek non-profit status for Maui Film & Research to reach the multitudes. Keli'i, Seeti and Guy continue to preserve traditional cultural practices and kanaka maui...HCCW supports their collective journeys of Aloha, the greatest truth of all...eō

6.21.14...Summer Solstice at Kūkaniloko...Several different groups visited throughout the day. Keale was joined by his 'ohana of musicians for kanikapila. Pelekikena Malia Doo and Papa Henry with his homemade base, sang with Keale in the early afternoon. Families came to listen. A prayer group came with intention to close a Solstice Day of Global Prayers for Peace at Kūkaniloko where historically, the end is the beginning. Kumu Ulukoa of Wai'ānae kai arrived with his haumana in the late afternoon. They performed a collection of hula kahiko for the ancestors. Kaneala and John Hina III closed the array of activities on site with their kani a ka Pu in the four directions. Photographers Vicki Pakele & Christian Yee captured the day on film...eō
