10.04.2k14...Archaeology Week from October 3 - 12 was held by the Society for Hawaiian Archaeology [SHA]. Scheduled as one of their site visits was a journey down to Waikakalaua Stream to part-take in site interpretation of O'ahunui and his sister, Kilikili'ula. Maps and mo'olelo - traditional comprehension - were shared. The group of Archaeologists then travelled to Kūkaniloko Birthstones State Monument for continued site interpretation with Tom. They were joined by Helen Anderson from Aotearoa [New Zealand] and Beno Atan from Rapanui [Easter Island]. Mr. Atan was interested in how we, of Hawai'i, successfully mālama our sacred sites. He was able to ask questions to get a clearer view of how they can perpetuate their sacred sites in similar ways.

10.22.2k14...Hana Pa'a Softball Team...from left to right: Tori Spacek; Summer Larita; Dallas Colburn; Kaheamailani Kawewehi; and Mikaylah Silva. The girls spent a few hours of their sleep-over making pa'akai for the Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā. Talking story, giggling and working together, the girls managed to make 200 satchels of pa'akai. Awesome! Synchronistically: The name of the team for these girls is Hana Pa'a meaning for them, "Hardwork & Passion". The Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa is defined: Po'e 'Ōlelo - E ho'ohana like a'e ana...Po'e Haole (in English, people who...) - Work Together! It is only natural to teach our next generation to work together for a common cause. Mahalo piha nā 'ōpio of Hana Pa'a Softball team for your caring, assistance and especially a job well done! You are loved and appreciated; you are our future.....eō mai la

'Ōlelo no'eau...Mary Kawena Pukui #688...He keiki mea kupuna... [It shows] that the child has a grandparent...Said in admiration of a child whose grandparents show affection by making beautiful things for his use or compose a song or a chant in his honor. A similar expression is He keiki mea makua... [It shows] that the child has a parent...maika'i

10.20.14...The new Director of Land and Property for the Office of Hawaiian Affairs [OHA] is Miles Nishijima. Announced to take office as of this date, he will be a part of the OHA seven member executive team. A staff of 12 under him will include Jonathan Ching, Land and Property Manager and Ikaika Nakahashi, Natural Resources Manager who have formerly been the OHA contacts for the Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā regarding the Stewardship of Kūkaniloko. We look forward to an operative relationship with Mr. Nishijima and the family of kalana Kūkaniloko....welina

10.23.2k14...$100 gift certificate for "Malasada's Books and Collectibles" was given to the Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa by HCCW Maui members Seeti Douglass and Guy Gaumont. We now have the beginnings of our HCCW Reference Library of books, CD's and DVD's. Malasada's Books is owned and operated by Charlene Deveraturda of Mililani. Check out her website of new and used books; our order arrived the next day. Let's support our local businesses, especially those in our own backyard...

We offer a wide variety of books for sale...Mostly used books--many out-of-print--New volumes are included occasionally--along with some collectibles. Hawaiian and Asian works are featured, but all kinds of subject matter is offered as well. Based in Hawaii, there is a special emphasis on Hawaiiana as well as other ethnic writings. We try to keep it interesting! Offers are considered. 10.25.2k14...Wahiawa Historical Society [WHS] hosted a book signing event for HCCW's lālā ho'okama Julia Estrella Higa at the Wahiawa Botanical Gardens early Saturday morning. President of WHS, Dr. Jared Kanemaru (Leilehua High School [LHS] Class of '68) welcomed the gathering. "Being Local in Hawai'i", authored by Julia, was released in March 2014. Although there have been many book signing events, this was the most special for her to come to her home, Wahiawā Town. Several of her Classmates from LHS Class of '58 attended. A pleasant morning enjoying the support of her hometown. She greeted them individually and autographed their books. Ho'omaika'i loa...

Hawai'i, in the perception of MARK TWAIN, renowned writer and world traveler..."No alien land in all the world has any deep, strong charm for me, but that one; no other land could so longingly and beseechingly haunt my sleeping and waking, through half a lifetime, as that one had done. Other things leave me, but it [Hawai'i] abides." MARK TWAIN
