7.8.2k15 Emiko Cohen posted the water situation of Kūkaniloko on her Facebook site and blog. Hopefully, Japanese visitors will hear our message and bring some water for the plants on their site visits. 日本の皆様に親しまれているバーストーンことクーカニコ。ここに来られた方の多くが『爽やかな東風になびく木々の音に包まれ、なんともいえない心地よさを感じた』とコメントを残されています。ところが異常気象の影響でしょうか、今年は雨が少なく、クーカニコの植物たちが乾いてしまっている状況なのです！実はここには水路／水道が、通っていない。そこで皆様にお願いが。。。どうかここを訪問される際に、少しでも良いので水を植物に与えていただきたい。飲みかけのペットボトルの水でも構わない。その貴方の行為こそが、オアフ島の最も聖なる土地と言われているクーカニコへの最高の《makana》ギフトになるのです♪ Emiko Cohen

7.8.2k15...One important way that visitors can support Kūkaniloko is to bring water.

The wai - water - is a makana - a gift - from their families to Kūkaniloko, a precious gift. It makes the personal connection for each of our visitors to malama - care for - Kūkaniloko. It is considered a gift to assist. It is much needed, affordable and simple. Their hearts will connect; their spirits will connect; they will have a sense of satisfaction and completion that they could give back something precious to this beautiful place of which they also have much respect for. Summer is almost over. Mahalo...

7.26.2k15...Junko Nishida was the first person to follow up with the information on the blog & HCCW Facebook page to make contact. She is visiting from Yamaguchi, Japan. Junko is an interpreter at the "Museum of Japanese Immigration to Hawaii". A new communication channel has opened between Miss Nishida, HCCW and Kūkaniloko. Mahalo for gifts of water and your kind donation.

Missionaries preaching under kukui groves in the year 1841...

2015...Halemano “come the multitudes” in the 21st Century...Our ancestors learned to read and write under the shade of the kukui trees in the mid-1800’s. The Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa seeks to inspire, educate and encourage all things Hawaiian, seen and unseen. Teaching continues in our lifetime under the shade of the trees of Kūkaniloko. From all walks of life they come to learn; one, or one hundred, it matters not. The truth is told. Revered royal children were “born in the purple” in the most sacred of ceremonies. They were educated here in this kulanui of old. A child, sent from the gods on high, to lead our people, our Nation, to a life filled with peace and prosperity...eō

Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa Name Correction...

Kakau ‘Ōlelo Tabangcura drafted a letter to the O‘ahu Council (OC) of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs (AHCC) to officially request that their spelling of “Wahi‘awa” as our organization name be corrected by removing the ‘okina and to recognize our civic club as the “Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa”. We were Chartered with AHCC on April 16, 1966 as the Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa. We request to be addressed as is recorded per our Charter. At that time diacritical marks were nonexistent. There are many variations of spelling and meanings of Wahiawa. We elected to simply be recognized as Wahiawa. Mahalo for hearing our request.

Wahiawā...Mary Kawena Pukui indicates in Place Names of Hawai‘i that the correct modern spelling is Wahiawā, meaning a “place of noise.” Mo‘olelo and mele indicate that the natural topography of Wahiawā created a kind of an amphitheater, so much so that the ocean waves of Hale‘iwa could be heard from Wahiawā. Our kupuna ma of Kūkaniloko had knowledge of this area being a natural amphitheater, not only of sound but of energy thus the enhancement of the births of the highest ali‘i that occurred here at kapaahuawa. Mahalo La‘akapu Lenchanko...eō

7.22.2k15...‘Ōlelo classes began at the Wahiawa Media Center located on the Leilehua High School Campus. The staff at ‘Ōlelo had offered classes to the Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawa members four years ago and ever since. The timing was never right. Everything finally came together in 2k15. Five of us took on the challenge. We each had a 30 second Public Service Announcement (PSA) to produce. We decided to take the Protocol for Kūkaniloko and divide it among us into 5 parts. We will return in September to edit these into a short film to air on ‘Ōlelo Programming. It is our hope to educate the viewers of our Protocol for Kūkaniloko through this medium. The acronym created by our five inoa initials is:

Mahalo Jeff, for a job well done.

PSAVK: Public Service Announcement Voice of Kukaniloko...eo We are ready!

‘Ōlelo recording equipment of cameras, microphones, batteries, earphones and tripods are available for checking out to complete more projects to eventually air on ‘Ōlelo. Mahalo for this new experience...
