Mana`okeiala... mai kakou e pu pa`akai - come and share some salt with us....The Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā, thanks you to Mrs. Lurline Hinano Lee for its continued practice, traditionally presents our guests with pa`akai whenever they come to traditional cultural practices onsite at Kūkaniloko or as seekers of knowledge through our educational displays of Kūkaniloko at presentations, fairs, festivals, and gatherings of ‘ohana or special groups of interest. Poe kahiko highly valued pa`akai. One use was for the preservation of their foods. No keia au, when we ask someone to "come and share pa`akai with us" we raise awareness for others to assist in continued preservation of our ‘ōlelo Hawai`i, our traditional cultural practices, malama`āina, our kanaka maui, and our aloha, the greatest truth of all...we do this through connection to and centering at Kūkaniloko, the "piko" of our Nation Hawai`i, Ko Hawai`i pae`āina...eo

June 11th, 2010...the kahea of kupunama has been answered...mai kakou e pu pa`akai is further interpreted as "come and share the salt off our backs"...Hawaiian Nationals brought to completion many, many years of effort to remove the "Wahiawā Healing Stone" from its concrete foundation...keaniani`ulaokalani has been returned home...pohaku kupunama ho`ohiamoe in an undisclosed location - for now... e ho`opomaika`i kakou maika`i kela nā kane a me nā wahine.

Summer Solstice Celebration on June 19, 2010...we gathered early morning on the twelfth moon at Kukaniloko...site interpretation with Tom was held as heavily clouded skies were above...48 extended ‘ohana of kupuna, makua, keiki, & pepe joined in the two hour journey into Halemano and back...a beautiful anuenue stepped down from the heavens, a welcomed ho`ailona...aluna ahiahi new signs were POSTED: kapa ahu awa kukaniloko - KAPU!
