05.01.2k22 ... Kūkaniloko Birth Site remains CLOSED to the public. However, Ka Piko Huaka'i Lohe Ana – Piko Listening Journeys, are now being scheduled once again for haumāna as field-trip bus reservations are available. We encourage kukaniloko.org "Contact Us" for wait list reservations for HCCW's Escorted access only.... Mahalo nō

05.02.2k22 ... Finished copies of the 2021 AOHCC Resolutions for our HCCW Kūpuna. The Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā is in receipt of the final copies of the Hali'a Aloha Resolutions accepted in honor of: Kupuna Bernard Kauakea Rodrigues, Kupuna Henry Kam Ching "Hanale" Doo, and Joseph Wahahanu Helenihi. Mahalo to AOHCC Resolution Committee Chairperson Keoni Shizuma for your patience and excellent services provided to HCCW. Eō

05.05.2k22 ... A visit to Ō'io. HCCW's Pelekikena Noelani DeVincent and Pu'ukū Kalimapau were escorted by Archaeologist David M. Crowley, CIV USARMY IMCOM PACIFIC (USA) to Kahuku Range. Site inspection, maintenance and care took place high up on the Kahuku mountainside. Three special sites were visited. Although protected from disturbance and trespass by wire fence barriers and pad-locked gates, maintenance and care are not provided for these remote sites. HCCW takes escorted visits when offered to clean and clear debris. This was a very special day visiting three sites to offer our Aloha with oli a me ho'okupu from Kūkaniloko honoring Kūpuna mā'o Ō'io. Mahalo Dave for your care and guidance.

05.07.2022 ...Today HCCW nā lālā'ōiwi, nā lālā ho'okama and the Friends of Kūkaniloko shared in the task of

05.17.2k22... Mililani Mauka Middle School. 30 Haumāna, 4 Kumu, 2 Chaperones, and Master Tove, with his “all-terrain wheelchair” came to Kūkaniloko today. Mililani Middle began their journey with HCCW in 2018 and was the first returning 2022 HIDEOE school in 25 months since we have been CLOSED to the public. We are thankful to have the opportunity to share our mana‘o with haumāna who live within the 36,000 acres of Pu‘uhonua Kūkaniloko kalana Līhu‘e, Wahiawā, Halemano... Kumu Kahuiao had our first experience to include this unique “all-terrain wheelchair” as ADA equipment. Special mahalo for the 50+ gallons of water that you brought to nurture our long-established as well as newly planted Native plants. Maika‘i kela. EŌ

We say fond aloha to Mililani Middle History teacher, Ms. Teresa Duran. She brought her students two and three times each year from 2018 until the pandemic in 2020. She will be leaving Mililani Middle School for a windward teaching position at Castle High School. You are appreciated! EŌ

Kūkaniloko grounds surely missed the Mālama‘Āina segment of our Kulanui Ao Kūkaniloko program. These 50+ gallons of water were so precious to our Native plants and trees. Mahalo nō Mililani (Mauka) Middle School Haumāna.
