04.28.2K17...Leilehua High School held their 1st Job Fair in the Library on campus from noon to 3pm. An area was set for those of service to Wahiawā and her surrounding communities to come to seek volunteers to help them. HCCW was invited to come and sign up those students willing to come out to our 3rd Saturday Kūkaniloko Community Clean-up on May 20th. A total of 35 students signed up. We are grateful. A sincere mahalo to our HCCW Volunteers Nona Aguero, Uilani Akee, & Kupuna Manny El Tagonde for your assist. Mahalo LHS...eō

05.05.2k17...Pā'ina Night Fundraiser @ Dots in Wahiawā...Mahalo! A wonderful night with our families' and our community's support! Thank you for your kind donations online through PayPal. After a Blessing by HCCW Kahu Peter Kawaimaka Lonoae'a at 5 pm, the doors opened for a night of old school friendship, family fun, 'Aina ahiahi, island entertainment, games, lucky numbers and prizes! Mahalo to all those who donated their time and efforts and those who made donations to our Silent Auction and Prizes. Mahalo to Chair Noelani DeVincent and her committee for their work. As they say...Pictures are worth a thousand words. These are no different...enjoy! Aloha pumehana

Kumu Kalimapau shared the meaning of the piko, Kūkaniloko. Each student was given a headband to wear the piko on their foreheads.

Kumu Sunny Iwalani Algozo taught our preschool haumāna the meaning of A...L...O...H...A...

Kumu Lonoae'a taught haumāna a fun clapping hula noho called "Pa'i" and then showed them the Hawaiian string game as well.

Kumu Nona taught haumāna how to count from one to ten using Hawaiian numbers and pictures they were familiar seeing each day.
