10.03.2k17...David Shiraishi hosts the Umeda family and Miss Ariyoshi from Fukuoka, Japan. There is much international interest in understanding of our Hawaiian ancient wisdoms and knowledge. Kūkaniloko, a place of education and learning...eō

10.05.2k17 ... Wahiawā Trinity Lutheran School visit in the late morning. Kalimapau and Kahu Lonoae'a shared the Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā educational display board in the school library. Four and five year old students came to spend an hour learning about Kūkaniloko and the piko. Photos of the diamond shaped stone where the piko petroglyph is located were described and shown. Students then took some time to draw their perception of the piko image and told their stories about what they drew. HCCW invites all students to come for a Piko Listening Journey...

10.07.2k17... Our annual HCCW Mauna 'Ala Mausoleum cleaning. Together with Ko'olaupoko HCC, Princess Ka'iulani HCC, Waialua HCC, and Pearl Harbor HCC, Hawaiian Civic Club of Wahiawā members met for our annual commitment to clean the chapel and the crypt of our Ali'i. Six members of HCCW were there. Mahalo to Nona Aguero, Anamali'a Ancheta, Noelani DeVincent, Vicki Pakele and Kalimapau. And a special mahalo nūnui to lālā ho'okama Doris Grace Lokomaika'i Christopher, a member since 2k12, who also worked with us. Grace will be relocating to her home on the continent to be near her family. Best wishes to you on this part of your journey. Aloha nō!

10.09.2k17 ... Kamalani Academy and the Office of Hawaiian Education, OHE, met at Waipahu High School for the HĀ: Breath Design Team planning session. HCCW's Noelani DeVincent and Kalimapau met with Coordinator Patricia Massoth, 2nd grade teacher Erica Lenentine, and student representative, Ku'uiipo Laumatia of Kamalani Academy. Details of visits to Kūkaniloko for Piko Listening Journeys were discussed. Plans are to accommodate the entire student body of 300 plus students, staff and chaperones over three visits in January of 2018. Aloha and Mahalo

10.11.2k17 ... New signage... For public safety, a sign will be posted on the gate when dangerous work takes place on site.

10.11.2k17 ... Annual tree trimming at Kūkaniloko Birthstones State Monument took place today. Special equipment was brought onsite to trim the large eucalyptus trees as well as the coconuts and palm fronds. Imua Landscaping Arborist Randy Salakielu and crew spent several hours trimming broken eucalyptus branches that were removed to an offsite location. Coconut trees were trimmed of coconuts and old fronds that were eventually chipped to remain onsite. Mulch chips are used for plants to retain moisture...

Mahalo to the crew of Imua Landscaping Co., Inc. for their respect and care as they trimmed the towering eucalyptus trees that surround our Nā Pōhaku Hānau Ali'i onsite at Kūkaniloko Birthstones State Monument. We appreciate the grooming to keep our site safe, clean and beautiful for all. Aloha

10.23.2k17... Kupuna Lynette Kahekili Kaopuiki Paglinawan, brought her haumāna from University of Hawai’i West O’ahu, UHWO. Her students of “Nohona Hawai’i – The Hawaiian Way” experienced a Piko Listening Journey. She is pictured here with Dr. Manulani Aluli-Meyer. Kumu Lynette focuses her program there on ho’oponopono (a process for setting things right). She teaches her students to center and respect mana (supernatural power) and to acknowledge, first and foremost, that there are higher powers that hold jurisdiction over us. In her class, Kumu Lynette shares our island perspectives of intention, spirituality, protocol, attitudes, procedures, self-care, and the healing process through traditional comprehension of ho’oponopono. Huaka’i to Kūkaniloko was important for her haumāna to know and understand that these practices of our kūpuna ma are real and exist in our world today as well. Me ke Aloha to Nohona Hawai’i. Mahalo iā ‘o Kumu Lynette. You are each appreciated. Aloha nō.

Teacher, Kailani Ross of Maui arranged for a Piko Listening Journey at Kūkaniloko. She brought her friends from Makakilo. A beautiful day indeed for the exchange of mana’o.
