Mahalo La'akea & dad for your help with lau ki.

Mahalo to all the kane of the weed whacking crew. Overgrowth is always a challenge after frequent Wahiawa rains. You got it.

Thank you...to those who came to assist with clean-up on this a beautiful, end of autumn day in December. The rain sat back and waited until we were done before the showers came to refresh the newly planted gardens and freshly cut grasses. And too for all of your contributions, expertise, and resolve for many ongoing challenges on the grounds of Kūkaniloko. Mahalo nūnui.

12.16.2k17 ... 'Iliahi - all Hawaiian kinds of sandalwood, shrubs and trees with fragrant wood [PUKUI] flourished in the Sacred Uplands of Wahiawā. These beautiful kupukupu were hand planted today along with several varieties of laua'e. It is good to plant in the winter months as recurrent rains help new and old plants to thrive. Mahalo ke Akua...
